The Honorable Bolitha J. Laws
Chief Judge
United States District Court
Washington, District of Columbia

Dear Judge Laws:

25X1A9a

FOIAb [redacted], an employee of this Agency, has been summoned for jury service on 31 May 1956 (Juror [redacted]).

It is the policy of the Agency that employees will perform their civic duty to serve as jurors except when most urgent business requires that they seek excuses.

25X1A9a [redacted] is one of a limited number of specialists assigned to a project in which time is of the essence. This project will require overtime service on the part of all the 25X1A9a specialists assigned to it if it is to meet its deadline in July. If [redacted] were to serve as a juror during June, it would be impossible to meet certain commitments.

25X1A9a Under the circumstances, we respectfully request that you consider postponing [redacted] jury service at this time.

Sincerely yours,

SIGNED

H. Gates Lloyd
